RESOLUTION NO. 22-10 National Child Abuse Prevention Month April 2022

WHEREAS, in Federal fiscal year 2020, 3.9 million reports were made to child protective services; and

WHEREAS, child abuse and neglect is a serious problem affecting every segment of our community, and finding solutions requires input and action from everyone; and

WHEREAS, our children are our most valuable resources and will shape the future of Pike County; and

WHEREAS, child abuse can have long-term psychological, emotional, and physical effects that have lasting consequences for victims of abuse; and

WHEREAS, protective factors are conditions that reduce or eliminate risk and promote the social, emotional, and developmental well-being of children; and

WHEREAS, effective child abuse prevention activities succeed because of the partnerships created between children's advocacy centers, child welfare professionals, law enforcement agencies, education, health, community- and faith-based organizations, businesses, and families; and

WHEREAS, communities must make every effort to promote programs and activities that create strong and thriving children and families; and

WHEREAS, we acknowledge that we must work together as a community to increase awareness about child abuse and contribute to promote the social and emotional well-being of children and families in a safe, stable, and nurturing environment; and

WHEREAS, prevention remains the best defense for our children and families.

NOW, THEREFORE, The Pike County Commissioners, do hereby proclaim April 2022 as NATIONAL CHILD ABUSE PREVENTION MONTH in Pike County and urge all citizens to recognize this month by dedicating ourselves to the task of improving the quality of life for all children and families.
